THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By M. C. Gallaway & Co. MEMPHIS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1868. (Volume Eleven—Number 31

THE DAILY AVALANCHE.

Prof. Richardson, of the Rochester, New York, University, died Tuesday.

The grocery store of C. D. Mohlenberg, at Lyons, Iowa, was burned on Monday. Loss $10,000.

A fire occurred at Detroit Tuesday in the millinery store of E. Damont & Co. Loss $25,000; half insured.

A bill is before the Minnesota Legislature leaving capital punishment for murder discretionary with a jury.

James Love, under sentence of death at Maysville, Kentucky, has been respited by the Governor until the 28th day of June.

President Cabrel, of San Domingo, has been compelled to flee from his Capital, and the revolutionists have things their own way.

A proposition was before the Boston Commercial Convention to build a ship canal around the Falls of Niagara, and connect the great lakes with the Mississippi river.

A fire occurred at Houston, Texas, on the 11th, destroying a number of small stores on Main street, between Prairie street and Texas avenue. The loss is about $20,000, with little insurance.

Colonel Wiley Colman, a lawyer, committed suicide at Kosciusko, Mississippi, by jumping into his own well, a few days since. Pecuniary embarrassments, it is supposed, caused the act.

James Cheever, a mail carrier in Minnesota, was so badly frozen near Devil's Lake, a few days ago, that he will lose both arms and both legs. He lay out upon the prairie four days and nights.

Butler is gathering evidence to prove that Grant's real name is Ulysses Souptureen Grant. Considering Butler's partiality for silver, Grant might retaliate and call the "Great Bottled" Benjamin Pistareen Butler.

The black and tan convention of Florida being very sensitive to public ridicule, holds its meetings in secret session, and most of the time without a quorum. Remonstrances of the citizens of Florida to General Meade have hitherto been unavailing. Deeds of darkness always fear the light.

The Macon (Georgia) Telegraph says: "Jacob Thompson, one of the distinguished American exiles abroad, recently received a remittance of eighty thousand dollars in gold, the proceeds of a sale of his lands lying along the Mississippi river. Before the war he was the richest man in Mississippi, his wealth being over $1,000,000.

Samuel Strauss, Esq., a merchant from Chattanooga, while on his way East to purchase goods, was assaulted Tuesday evening at the depot in Knoxville by a couple of negroes. Mr. Strauss succeeded in dealing one of the ruffians a blow with a cane, and upon a railroad man coming up, the ruffians made off. Mr. Strauss lost his gold watch during the melee, but succeeded in keeping his wallet, which contained $8,000, safe.

The election for a United States Senator from Kentucky to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Guthrie, comes off on the 18th. A number of distinguished gentlemen are named as aspirants for the position, among them the present Governor, Hon. John W. Stevenson, ex-Governor Magoffin, Jesse D. Bright, Dr. Norman Green, of Louisville, and Judge Phister, of Maysville, with the chances, it is said, in favor of Governor Stevenson.

The Montgomery Mail says: "Whole columns could be filled with glaring instances of fraud perpetrated by the Radicals in the late "so-called" election. Negroes voted for dead men. Negroes who never left their homes have had their names checked off by some other negro pretending to vote for them. Men who were disfranchised by General Pope's order, shamefully perjured themselves in order to vote. The whole thing will come to light in due time."

ARKANSAS ITEMS.

The Hamburg Times of the 1st instant says: On last Monday night, at about half past eight o'clock, as James L. Pugh was unloading some corn from his wagons, in the crib of Dr. J. M. Owens, the crib suddenly fell, and Frank B. Pugh, son of Dr. F. G. Pugh, who was in the crib, was killed. Before the body could be taken from under the fallen timber life was wholly extinct. Little Frank was a bright and beautiful boy of some six or seven summers, and was the favorite of everybody who knew him. Strange to say, a negro man and little Dolly Spencer, who were in the crib at the time, were uninjured.

From the Fort Smith Herald of the 1st instant we take the following items:

Mr. D. Smith (Dow), returned from Polk county on Tuesday, and brought us one or two specimens of silver ore. He thinks it is very rich. Mr. Smith says the county abounds in rich lead mines. The people make their own bullets from the ore.

Mr. William Bennett arrived here on Sunday last, direct from Boggy Depot, Cherokee Nation. He informed us that on the 21st instant it was reported at Boggy Depot that the wild Indians had made a raid into Texas, and burned Gainesville, and killed eight men. They had also made a raid into the Chickasaw Nation, and attacked Colonel Pickens. He fought them five days, and drove them away. They say they intend to come down on the Chickasaws and Choctaws in the spring. There are white men and negroes among the wild Indians.

We learn from a letter to the Clarksville (Texas) Standard, dated Gainesville, January 7th, that the Indians had been near Gainesville a few days before and killed an old man by the name of Menasco and his little grandchild, and took prisoner Mrs. Shegog, her daughter and two children. The old man had gone to the rescue of his daughter and her children, and was returning to his home when he was attacked by the savages and killed. The Indians continued their depredations in that neighborhood for several days, and while in the neighborhood, Mrs. Shegog made her escape.

An exciting incident occurred on the train on the Pacific railroad west from St. Louis, Tuesday. A young man named Watson, just married that day, with his bride on the train, was going to Kansas on a trip. Watson appeared excited, and told his wife some men were following him, and, when within a mile of Jefferson City, and while the train was under full headway, he jumped through a window, breaking the glass and falling to the ground. The train was stopped, backed up, and the conductor and passengers searched for the man who it was thought would be found dead, but being discovered in the bushes, he sprang on the ice and ran at full speed across the Missouri river, watched by all the passengers till he vanished in the woods on the other side. He was evidently deranged, but his newly wedded wife could give no explanation of the cause.

ARKANSAS STATE ELECTION.

Resolutions Adopted at Little Rock January 27, 1868.

1. Resolved, That we are in favor of a WHITE MAN's government in a WHITE MAN's country.

2. Resolved, That as the capacity of the negro for self government has not been proved by his past history in any part of the world, so it is disproved by his actual condition here at the present time.

3. Resolved, That laws which affect the social relations of a people are only to be ventured on with caution, and are attended with danger; and that a forced equality of races involves a calamity to the back race no less than degradation to the white.

4. Resolved, That all organized government can continue to exist without limitations to its power, and that such limitations as have heretofore been placed on the right of suffrage while it leaves negroes in no worse condition than minors, Indians, women and foreigners, are proper and just; that while bad rulers may die or be displaced, the proposition of the ballot and the polution of the source of popular government is, in a republic, the crown of evils and a calamity which admits of no civil remedy.

5. Resolved, That we are in favor of the equality of the negro before the law, but not of his power over the law, of his right to acquire, possess, enjoy, convey and transmit property; to sue and to be sued, to testify in Courts of justice, to be in all things protected in his rights of person and property by the most careful provisions of the law, and that he have in short all rights and guarantees except that of equal participation in making the laws for which he is manifestly incompetent, and except the rights and privileges of a social equality.

6. Resolved, That whereas the present State constitution was devised and adopted under the auspices and instructions of the late Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, in a Federal camp, by men approved as loyal at a time when the most rigorous tests of loyalty were applied; and whereas, the same is not only republican in form, but in fact, and has met with the approbation of the great majority of the white men of the State, therefore we are opposed at present to any organic change in our State government.

7. Resolved, That we consider those who are attempting by disfranchisement of whites and enfranchisement of negroes to accomplish the Africanization of the State and the surrender of the government to negroes, to be the enemies of the country.

8. Resolved, That whereas the people of Arkansas who were recently engaged in the war against the United States submitted at the close of the same by surrender in good faith to the authority of the Federal Government, and swore to support the same, as well as the constitution of Arkansas, formed as stated in the sixth resolution, with a sincere and honest intention, consistently adhered to, of being and remaining true to both, with the conviction that the State was then to resume her former status in the Union, in the opinion of this convention she is entitled to her rights and privileges as one of the United States, under her present constitution.

9. Resolved, That all citizens of the State who concur in these views are urged to give their hearty and active support; and without regard to former difference of opinion to use all honorable means to secure their adoption by the people of the State; and that we earnestly recommend to all voters in the State to vote against any proposed constitution submitted by the supposed constitutional convention now in session in Little Rock; as it is the deliberate sense of this convention that that body has no authority to adopt or propose any constitution for the people of Arkansas, and we do more especially recommend to the people of Arkansas that they reject negro suffrage whenever and in whatever shape it may be proposed to them.

Mr. Gantt, of Prairie, moved the appointment of a committee of three to prepare an address to the people of the State of Arkansas in support of a white man's government.

Adopted, and the Chair appointed A. H. Garland, of Pulaski; William Byers, of Independence; A. B. Williams, of Hempstead.

THE GAINES CASE.

A Remarkable Litigation and a Remarkable Woman.

[Washington Correspondence of the New York Express.]

The irrepressible Myra Clark Gaines, in many respects the most remarkable woman of the age, was again before the Supreme Court to-day, immersed in litigation. The history of Mrs. Gaines for the past quarter of a century is little less than the history of American jurisprudence for the same period of time. Thousands who have arrived at manhood's estate have their earliest recollections associated with Mrs. Gaines and her adventurous career in our courts of justice. Many will feel interested in learning how and why Mrs. Gaines is still in court after her reputed successes in law and law suits.

The first favorable decree obtained from the Supreme Court by this extraordinary lady was afterward set aside by the court on the grounds of collusion; but in the year 1861 the celebrated case of Gaines vs. Hennings was decided in her favor, after elaborate argument. She had claimed as legatee, and not as the heir of Dr. Clark, and the suit was resisted on the ground that an "adulterine bastard" could not, under the laws of Louisiana, be made a legatee. The decision in her favor settled only the one case, and there were hundreds of others, all waiting to be brought up by appeal to have the decisions below reversed.

The cause argued in court to-day was but the second one of these cases, and the counsel for the appellee again raised the question of legitimacy, alleging that Mrs. Gaines in her former suit, not having claimed as heir, had not recited legitimacy in her bill, and hence the point had not been properly before the court for adjudication. On the other hand Mr. Cushing, counsel for Mrs. Gaines, insisted that in the Hennings case the appellant had, by his plea, put the legitimacy of Mrs. Gaines in direct issue before the court, and that as the issue had already been settled by the court, he should decline to reargue it. Mr. Cushing having resumed his seat, a short consultation was held among the judges, who determined that Mr. Cushing should proceed with the argument. Such is the position of the case at present, and, although Mrs. Gaines is still to undergo this severe ordeal, she does not shrink from the task. She was present in the court room and watched the proceedings closely. She has several times addressed the court herself, when lawyers have become disheartened and abandoned her cause. Her friends are perfectly sanguine of her final success, and predict that she will yet be the wealthiest woman on the continent.

Sound Doctrine.

A committee of the Adams County (Mississippi) Democratic Association has issued an address to the people of that county, which concludes as follows:

Protesting against all that has been done or may be done by the so called convention of the State of Mississippi, now in session, we have abundant evidence, in the action already had, that neither the best interests of the State, the rights of its citizens, nor the well being of society and perpetuity of free institutions are in safe hands administered by it. We counsel no factions, no violent or unlawful action, but that, in obedience to, and in conformity, with the laws still vouchsafed us by those who, in so many instances, have ignored all law, we organize and act for the protection of our dearest interests, our loved ones and our homes.

This address is signed by Josephus Hewett, Esq., General W. T. Martin, Colonel John S. Holt, Colonel G. M. Hillyer, S. L. Guice and T. C. Pollock, Esqs.

RESISTANCE TO CONGRESS.

A Bold and Manly Talk.

The time has arrived in the history of this Republic when there is no longer safety in silence, nor manliness in submission. The last act of the Republican majority would destroy the only chance that remains to us for deliverance from absolute despotism. While the doors of the Supreme Court are open to the appeals of the oppressed, there will still linger in the hearts of Americans a latent feeling of security. But when these shall be closed, there is nothing left to them but the arbitration of physical force. What can be predicted for the future of a country thus voluntarily thrust back into barbarism by the decrees of the lawgivers? What can, what dare we, hope of the immediate present of a civilized nation thus hurling away the restraints and safeguards of law, and substituting for them the license and despotism of military rule. What shall we say of the fitness of such men for the discharge of the high and sacred trusts reposed in them? History may, perhaps, do justice to their crimes, but nothing can possibly do justice to their monstrous presumption. How little have they learned in the great school of wisdom; how little have they profited by the great lessons of history! When there is no longer any means left to men to avert danger, they turn and face it with awful desperation. When there is no longer an avenue of retreat open, then the sword must cleave a path for the imperiled army. Men conscious of the value of peace, and familiar with the cost of anarchy, concede little by little for the sake of peace, as long as there is virtue in concession; but when the terrible alternative of despotism or resistance is thrust upon them, woe be to those that make the issue! It is idle to attempt to mask the fact that all appeals to the reason of the majority are useless—are grave travesties. They are deaf to everything but the voices of their own passions and interests. Rights, liberties, time-honored institutions—everything that freemen value and revere—have been ruthlessly sacrificed. What is there left to them but the memories of a glorious past—unless, indeed, it is the sacred duty of vindicating the liberties which made that past memorable? So long as there is a hope of successfully appealing to reason and the courts of law, we counsel peace and forbearance, but when these fail us we demand our rights and liberties at all hazzards! The perjured apostates of constitutional liberty, that sit in our legislative halls, may learn to their cost that there are evils more dreaded by free born men than revolution—among them despotism. And if the nation believes that the crisis demands a dictator, nothing is more certain than that he will be of its own choosing. In the emergency that is upon us it is the solemn duty of every patriot to stand fast by the National Executive, who has proved himself to be worthy of public confidence by his unwavering and uncompromising fidelity to the Constitution and the laws. It is not the time now to discuss his errors of judgment. We cannot doubt the sincerity of his heart, and on that we must be content to rely. We caution him now to the utmost promptness and the greatest caution. He is the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy under the Constitution; let him look well to these, and be prepared, that when the moment comes to strike, his strokes may be decisive. We are satisfied that he will do his part of the work, if the people will do theirs. But he must have the assurance of the aid and sympathy of the nation at his back. With these behind him the popular triumph is assured. To this end let the great Conservative element of the country rally as one man to his support, and by a spontaneous and overwhelming public demonstration express to him their approval of his course, their confidence in his integrity, and their intention to stand by him in every necessary effort to restore the lost liberties of the country. In this attitude and in no other is there hope for national deliverance. Act cautiously, but be at all times ready to act promptly. We warn the tyrant, Radicalism, against any attempt to incorporate its latest monstrous conception into the statute books of this republic, and it behooves it to heed our warning.

General Grant has declined to interfere in the recent removals by General Hancock in New Orleans. The ousted officials, as soon as their removal became known, telegraphed to General Grant, asking a suspension of Hancock's order until he (Grant) could be communicated with by mail. Grant complied with the request and sent orders to Hancock accordingly. Hancock telegraphed back in that case he must ask to be relieved as commander of the Fifth Military District. Grant then revoked his order suspending the removals, and Hancock's order stands.

$34,500 IN PREMIUMS.

Number of Prizes, 25

Certificates $5 Each.

A Fortune or a Homestead for $5.

Capital Prize Valued at $20,000,

Which amount has recently been offered for the Springs and grounds immediately surrounding.

PRIZE NO. 1.

The celebrated RALEIGH MINERAL SPRINGS, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late county seat of Shelby county, Tennessee, nine mile northwest of Memphis and two miles from Well's Station, on the Memphis and Louisville railroad. These springs are six in number, of various mineral and medicinal qualities, and are visited every summer by thousands of seekers of health and pleasure from all quarters of the country. They are within a few steps of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and also within a few hundred feet of Wolf river, which winds around the base of the eminence on which the village of Raleigh is situated and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. Numerous remarkable cures of various diseases have been experienced by sojourners at this health inspiring retreat, and the present proprietor, Colonel J. M. Coleman, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures in cases which had been entirely given over by medical skill. The ground surrounding the Springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh rises to an eminence [illegible], and is as remarkable for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The Springs are in fine order, several never-failing, and are designated as follows:

Marble Spring,

Box Spring,

Magnolia Spring,

Arsenic Spring,

Sulphur Spring,

Freestone Spring.

The place has never been visited by epidemic of any kind, and peculiarly characteristic of its healthfulness is the longevity of the inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The springs are as much resorted to by pleasure seekers as by invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and various artificial as well as natural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bowling Alley, Rustic Arbors, [illegible] Saloon, Gents' Bowling Alley, Saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasiums, Refreshment Tables, etc.; while Wolf river affords excellent Boating and Fishing.

The grounds accompanying the Springs in the above scheme and included in the First Prize, is fifteen acres in extent, overlooking the valley and affords in addition to a magnificent site for a grand hotel and other buildings, splendid facilities for a park, promenades, etc.

Analysis of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shew that they are unsurpassed in mineral and curative properties by any in the United States. There is no reason then why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and as largely patronised. It needs only capital and enterprise to accomplish this end.

A charter is before the State Legislature for the incorporation of the Springs, and a movement has been inaugurated looking to a direct rail communication with Memphis.

For this prize, $20,000 was recently offered, which was declined in order that the above scheme may be fully carried out.

PRIZE NO. 2.

The elegant COUNTRY MANSION HOUSE and lot residence of J. M. Coleman is within a few yards of the Springs. The house is in first-class order, contains ten rooms, and is beautifully embowered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced, and ornamented with fine shade and fruit trees, and affords all necessary outhouses, cisterns, etc. It is midway between the village and Spring Valley, on the main promenade. Value, $8,000.

PRIZE NO. 3.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN CASH.

PRIZES NO. 4 TO 25.

TWENTY-TWO COTTAGE LOTS, valued at two hundred and fifty dollars each. These lots are a portion of the village of Raleigh, delightfully situated, all fronting on thoroughfares, and will be drawn with the understanding that the winners shall have free access at all times to the Springs and belongings.

DETAILS OF THE DRAWING.

Six thousand and seven hundred tickets, representing the certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel, and the same number of blanks (including twenty-five inscribed with names of the premiums) will be placed in another. From these wheels tickets will be drawn at the same time, and the number drawn will take the premium drawn simultaneously.

All moneys received upon the sale of these shares will be placed in the German National Bank of Memphis, and will remain there to the credit of the Association until the drawing takes place.

INDUSTRIAL AID SOCIETY

INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT.

THE Ladies of the Aid Society have connected with their rooms a duly authorized Intelligence Department, where any persons desiring "help" in any capacity can procure it by paying the sum of $1. Other offices of similar character charge $2 for the same service. Owing to the great scarcity of money, there is comparatively but little sewing passing through the rooms. Will not the young gentlemen of the city who have work of this kind send it to the Depot, in Stillman Block, where it will be done in good manner and at a moderate price. By doing this they will assist the worthy females in our midst who depend on their needle for subsistence. The ladies solicit sewing from all who have it to give out. Remember, the full price paid for the work goes to the employee, the society being supported by its membership.

THE Conservative ticket is placed at the head of our columns this morning, to remain there until the Conservative voters of Shelby county shall ratify the nominations made by yesterday's Convention. It is composed of good and true men. There is not one who is not in every respect competent to fill the position for which he has been named. If faithful public service, if fidelity to his trust, and the performance of his duties ever entitled a man to a continuance in office, P. M. Winters may proudly point to his record in all confidence of his re-election. Active as an officer, judicious in his arrangements, fully posted in every duty he has to discharge, a more suitable nomination could not have been made, and it speaks volumes for Mr. WINTERS' popularity that he should have been chosen with such unanimity. It was an indorsement of "well done, good and faithful servant," and we regard his election as entirely secure and beyond peradventure. Run your eye over the ticket. Is there one whose name does not "fill the bill?" Now, Conservatives and Democrats, it is your time to act. The Convention has given you a ticket of which you should be proud. It is not the mere procurement of offices for friends, but a great question is involved in this contest. By success we break the backbone of Radicalism, and prevent the entailment of abuses through its venality. We must have a County Commissioner to counteract the obliquitous schemes of the Radicals who were imposed upon our people by arbitrary power, and deriving their powers from an impure source, have shown themselves worthy of that source. The whole ticket, without a scratch, should and can be elected. If ever there were a time when the true men of Shelby owed it to themselves, and to their country, to put Radicalism under foot, it is the present. We have seen the petty tyrants, thrust upon us without our consent, traveling off to the State capital to procure acts of which the people have not been informed, involving interests over which these carpet baggers desired to exercise control. Let them be shown that they cannot reign over our people—that their dynasty is ended—that the people want men to fill their offices and conduct their affairs. It was in the hope and expectation of feeding hungry Radicals with office, that the enabling act was perfected. The good and true men of Shelby will have an opportunity of teaching them another part of speech. The only way to accomplish a triumph is to be firm and resolute. Stand shoulder to shoulder and side by side. There must be no shrinking or weak knees now. The country will look to us to show our hands and give a fatal blow to Radicalism. It deserves the severest punishment. There should not be a grease spot left to tell that its corrupt influences ever flourished here. The man who is not so lost to all honor, to all sensibility, to everything that inspires respect, as to be a Radical, should brace up his loins, put on the armor of invincibility, and move to the onset with undaunted, resolute hearts, and the Radicals will long have cause to mourn "the ides of March."

FIFTEEN thousand dollars in city notes, issued every month, in denominations of one, two and three dollars, and redeemable one year after their issuance, would give us a local city circulation of $180,000 in twelve months. With these notes the officers and employes of the city can be paid their salaries and wages, and the merchants, market-men and landlords would receive them in payment of debts. The City Tax Collector will receive them in payment of taxes. The payment of taxes for this year will absorb all the scrip now issued, which is $600,000, and will also absorb the city notes, unless the tax payers prefer to pay greenbacks. As the city has not the currency to pay its current expenses, these notes will be in lieu of a voluntary loan of the people. Greenbacks to-day are worth sixty cents in gold for every dollar of paper, and city scrip is worth fifty cents in greenbacks, so that the coin value of scrip is not quite thirty-six cents! But scrip of the city is not a circulating medium for money—and to be used it must be sold to brokers for currency. The city notes proposed to be issued would obviate all this and be an act of justice to the employers of the city. In having them in small denominations they would pass at par, so long as the city limited their issuance to $15,000 per month, and adhered to its policy of economy, and set its face against issuing scrip. Hereafter we will give our reasons for opposing the funding of the due debts in time bonds.

THE Freedmen's Bureau in Tennessee, Kentucky and Maryland will be closed to-day. We congratulate the people of these States on this happy event. The infinite number of the Bureau's agents, who plundered all alike, are now done with, and we hope forever. Freedmen's Bureau! Under its auspices the agricultural interests of the South have drooped, and almost perished. Under the color and name of protector, it robbed and wronged the emancipated slave. Organized to secure him the fruits of his labor, it defrauded him of his hire. Used by miserable agents for venal purposes, it was made, in their hands, an insult to the white man and a wrong to the negro. It is closed forever! The approaches and inroads upon the Constitution, made by Radical legislation, will crumble and pass away. Our people need be but patient. The power of the Democratic genius of our laws will wash away the drift and the debris of the country, as quietly but as certainly as the mighty waters of the king of floods washes away the filth from the foot of our bluff.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, February 14.

Attorney General Stanbery, in the Supreme Court to-day, read a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury addressed to him, stating in effect that the Department understood that questions as to the constitutionality of the legal tender act had arisen at this term in several cases between private parties, and that they had been discussed and were under advisement, and as the Government had no opportunity to present argument in support of the law, and owing to the very deep interest felt on the subject by the Government and the country at large, it was hoped that the Attorney General would obtain argument in support of the law before the cases which had been discussed should be decided by the Court.

The Attorney General said that owing to his multifarious legal duties, he feared he would be unable to prepare the proper argument during the present term, and therefore he desired that the Court would not deliver its opinions on these cases until the next term.

The Court took the matter under advisement.

One of the cases alluded to involves purely a question that, in an ordinary debt, whether or not the party has the right to discharge the obligation in legal tender notes. Another case which was argued by Senators Johnson and Williams, presents a question whether a debtor can pay his taxes in legal tenders, in the State of Oregon, it having declared that all its taxes should be paid in gold. The third case, which was argued by Messrs. Carlisle and Wells, is from California, which has a statute declaring that all judiciary taxes shall be paid only in gold.

General Lorenzo Thomas this morning assumed his duties as Adjutant General, by request of the President, and communicated to him through General Grant that Mr. Stanton relieved him in 1863, since when General Townsend has acted as Adjutant General.

Representative Covode to-day presented a communication to the House, with affidavits, concerning whisky frauds in New Orleans, showing how the Government was cheated of revenue in that city. The affidavits say 450,000 gallons should be returned in a year, whereas only twenty-three and a half barrels have been returned in six months; and further that each distiller has to pay the "Whisky Ring" one thousand dollars per month, the revenue officers getting a part of it.

NEW ORLEANS, February 14.

The Convention yesterday adopted a resolution asking for the appointment of General Mower to the command of the Fifth District, in case of the removal of Hancock.

The resolution was amended so as to substitute General Sheridan for Mower.

To-day was the sixty-fourth day of the session. Another resolution, abolishing the additional thirty per cent. per diem, failed.

The Committee on Style reported that the constitution, as revised, had been sent to the printer, and would be ready for the action of the convention on Monday morning, together with suggestions of the committee on amendments proposed.

The convention adjourned until Monday morning.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, February 14.

There is a rumor in Paris of a contemplated change in the ministry, in deference to the wishes and sentiments of the liberal party.

FLORENCE, February 14.

Menabrea has told Parliament, in reply to the question, that the Government has dispatched a ship to the river Platta, in South America, but gave no information as to the object of the expedition.

Lennox, the Fenian, has been sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment at hard labor. He made a defiant speech, predicting that the British monarchy would soon be overthrown, and hoping that an opportunity would be given him to repeat the act for which he was condemned.

The latest advices from Annesley Bay say that the auxiliary corps of Egyptians remain in Abyssinia, and are not moving forward as the expedition advances; and, notwithstanding the request made by the British Government to the Pacha of Egypt, they will be withdrawn.

Reports from the interior state that King Theodore and the British captives remain at Magdala.

LIVERPOOL, February 14.

Advices from Manchester are unfavorable, as the market for goods and yarns is heavy.

FLORENCE, February 14.

Admiral Farragut dined with Victor Emanuel, his Cabinet, and the most prominent officials, today. He was treated with great honor. The last rumor concerning his mission is, that it is to obtain a naval station in the Mediterranean.

Fortieth Congress—First Session.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 14.

On the motion of Mr. Morgan a petition relative to further legislation in regard to gold contracts, was tabled.

Mr. Anthony, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill to restore Lieutenant Commander Attall to the retired list. Passed.

On the motion of Mr. Trumbull, the bill authorizing the temporary supplying of the vacancies in the Executive Department, as reported by him yesterday, was taken up.

Mr. Fessenden asked whether thirty days was not an unnecessarily long time for the incumbency of such vacancies.

Mr. Trumbull said, as the law now stands, the President could supply the vacancies for eight months.

Mr. Fessenden moved to amend it by making it read "ten days," and by inserting after the word "vacancies," "occasioned by death or resignation." Agreed to.

Mr. Howe offered an amendment providing that no officer appointed to fill such vacancies shall receive any compensation additional to the salary he is entitled to with such assignment, which, after a discussion, was agreed to, and the bill then passed.

Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported a bill reducing the expenses of the War Department, and for other purposes. Also a resolution inquiring of the President whether any new military department, division or district has been authorized; and if so, by what authority of law.

The special order being to admit Mr. Philip F. Thomas, Senator-elect from Maryland, it was taken up, and Mr. Buckalew spoke in favor of admission. Messrs. Sherman, Howard and Morton spoke against his admission.

The Senate then went into executive session, and soon after adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

Mr. Woods offered a resolution directing the General of the Army to furnish all correspondence, by telegraph or otherwise, between himself and General Hancock, relative to the removal of Councilmen in New Orleans. Adopted.

The House then considered the two remaining resolutions in the contested election case in the Second District in Kentucky, declaring that Samuel L. Smith, the contestant for Mr. Brown's seat, did not receive a majority of the votes cast, and directing the speaker to notify the Governor of Kentucky that a vacancy exists in that District. But without disposing of the question the House adjourned.

The committee is engaged in framing a bill regulating the exportation of alcohol, highwines and liquors.

The seven-thirties outstanding and falling due on June 15th and July 15th next, and which are convertible into five-twenty bonds, amount to over $200,000,000, and will require much time between this and July 15th to convert them promptly at maturity. And the public is notified that unless such notes, which the Government is now offering to convert, are promptly forwarded to the Department for that purpose great delay must ensue in the future delivery of said bonds.

The Director of State taxes has furnished a table showing the revenues derived by the General Government from distilled spirits during the fiscal years ending June 13th, 1863 to 1867, inclusive, or for five years, were $135,856,355 in currency, or a total average of $27,071,671 currency per annum.

A man in Salisbury, Connecticut, tipped over in his sleigh a few days ago, and laughing, said no harm was done; but, on stepping in, after righting it, fell back and instantly expired.

The new town of Coyote, below Hays City, Colorado, consists of a train of Shoemaker's cars, on a side track, used for boarding and sleeping purposes. One car is fitted up as a telegraph office. Two men and a woman have set up a shop in a tent, with a ten gallon keg of whisky. One "vast illimitable" expanse of snow is all that greets the vision on every side, without a tree or twig to break the monotony.

NOTICE.—The Democratic meeting at Lord's new house, in Chelsea, will be held this evening, February 15th, at seven o'clock.

T. McCLEARY, Secretary.

STOLEN.—Several articles of clothing were stolen from the office of Esq. Moore, over Mansfield's drug store, on Thursday night.

BEATEN.—Mr. J. C. Moore, of Tipton county, while on the levee Thursday night, was badly beaten by roughs. His cries for assistance frightened the rascals away.

Attention is called to the sale of piece cassimeres, vestings, etc., at W. H. Passmore & Co.'s, 280 Second street, this morning at ten o'clock.

A handsome rockaway and two buggies and harness, will be sold at auction, at ten o'clock, this morning, by Royster, Trezevant & Co., in front of their salesroom, 276 Second street.

The office of the Christian Advocate has been removed to the AVALANCHE building, No. 22 Jefferson street, up stairs. Subscribers and other friends will take notice.

J. J. B. wishes to learn what is the meaning, if any they have, of the words "shin phain, shin phain." He would like to hear them defined, or see them exemplified. The words may be "shin fain."

EDITORS AVALANCHE: You mention, which is true, that this month has five Saturdays, and ask when it will occur again? If I mistake not, in eighteen hundred and ninety-six. It is easily determined.

JULIA.

GRAND OPENING.—A Grand opening of D. Hanley's new saloon, No. 294 Front street, takes place to-day. A free lunch for all from ten to twelve o'clock. All are invited to attend.

FINED.—Yesterday John Hallum and John Cowden were fined ten dollars each for shooting within the limits of the corporation. It will be remembered these gentlemen engaged in a little pistol practice on Court street, on Wednesday.

A CORRECTION.—We have a slight correction to make this morning. We have no desire to do any man injustice—no, not even Barbour Lewis. He did not order the publication of the cases for trial in the Law Court in the Bulletin, but he did insist that they should be published in the Radical organ until the clerk refused to do so.

FINED.—A man named William Bath was fined yesterday morning to the extent of fifty dollars for exercising the art of swindling an unfortunate negro out of forty-five dollars, by means of a game called "old chuck." The case was appealed to the Municipal Court.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—Several of the "boys" got on the rampage last night, and indulged in a little shooting practice near the corner of Main and Jefferson, among whom were James Robinson, Tom Pruett, B. Ferguson and Robert Filkins. As no damage was done, they were all let loose on a twenty-five dollar forfeit for shooting within the corporation.

VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE AIR LINE RAILWAY.—The fast freight line over this road, from Memphis to New York, offers superior facilities to shippers. Rates per hundred pounds for freight—1st class, $2 10; 2d class, $1 80; 3d class, $1 45; 4th class, $1 00. Time, ten days. Claims for overcharges and damages promptly adjusted. See card in another part of this paper.

MEMPHIS SUGAR REFINERY.—The Ledger of yesterday published an article on this subject, from John Davis, Esq., who suggests that on a capital of $[illegible],000 cash, a business of $300,000 could be done the first year. We ask the merchants of Memphis to come forward and push on this enterprise, establish a sugar refinery, and be no longer dependent on other cities for refined sugar or refined molasses.

COUNTY PRINTING.—The administration of our county finances is in the hands of Barbour Lewis and Merriman—honorable men, of course! They have paid to the Radical paper, for county printing, since the 1st of April, 1867, $4,410 40. When Lewis and Merriman took charge of county affairs the warrants of the county were worth dollar for dollar; now sixty cents will buy them! Here is honesty and capacity—Lewis and Merriman!

A Federal Soldier Shot by a Negro.

Thursday night about twelve o'clock a Federal soldier was shot and mortally wounded by a negro man near the corner of Main and Auction streets. From what we can learn of the affair, the soldier attempted to take some liberties with a negro woman, when he was shot by a negro man, the ball entering his neck, inflicting a mortal wound.

PERSONAL.—General Wirt Adams, of Mississippi, is at the Overton Hotel.

J. P. Pryor, of Virginia, arrived in our city yesterday.

The following may be found at the Gayoso: General E. C. Walthall, Mississippi; Governor R. M. Anderson and family, Arkansas; General Gideon J. Pillow, Tennessee; Colonel M. K. Mister, Judge E. S. Fisher, Mississippi; Colonel T. C. Flournoy, Arkansas.

The remains of Lieutenant A. D. Martin, of Austin's Louisiana battalion of sharpshooters, were forwarded by his remaining brother, C. N. Martin, of this city, to New Orleans for interment. This gallant soldier was wounded at the bloody battle of Franklin, Tennessee, December 18th, 1864, and died of his wounds December 28th of the same month. His remains were sent down on board the steamer General Quitman. Of him, as of his fallen comrades, it may be said:

"Those knights are dust,
And their good swords rust,
Their souls are with the saints, we trust."

NEW MEMPHIS THEATRE.—Last night the grand scenic drama of the "Black Crook" was presented to an overcrowded house. The beauty and fashion of the city were there to witness this wonderful production. It would be impossible to describe with correctness the beauty and effect of the scenery. The sailors' dance, the grand march of the charming Amazons, under their fair leader, Miss Isabella Waldron; the dancing of the corps de ballet, and the great scene of the Palace of Dewdrops—all these form a combination of attractions truly wonderful. Mons. Marravig, the maitre de ballet, cannot be too highly commended for the manner in which he directs his corps of dancers. To-day there will be a grand matinee, commencing at one o'clock. To-night the grand scene will again be presented.

MORE NEW SUBSCRIBERS.—As evidence of a constant appreciation of the AVALANCHE by the people at large, we are again enabled to publish an additional list of new subscribers. We thank our friends for such testimonials of approval. So long as we have the people's indorsement, we are thrice armed, as he whose cause is just. ROBINSON'S CIRCUS.—Owing the late arrival of the circus, the first performance was postponed until to-day, at one o'clock. The procession will move from the pavillion this morning, at ten o'clock. The tent is spread on the bluff, between Court and Madison streets.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

WHITE MEN IN COUNCIL.

Determined to Retrieve the Fortunes of their County and State.

Most Harmonious Proceedings.

The American, the Irish and the German United.

A Full County Ticket Nominated.

The Democratic white men of Memphis and Shelby county met in convention yesterday, at twelve o'clock, in the Greenlaw Opera House, and we can conscientiously say that no better or more intelligent body of white men have met in our city for years. There they were glowing with enthusiasm—the young man just reached his majority, and the hoary headed patriarch upon whose head had fallen the sunshine and shower, the rain and the snow of the scriptural allotment of three score years and ten, all determined to do their best devoir for the success of the white men over the thieving carpet-bag vagrants, who assimilating and pandering themselves even below the negro, seem determined to rule or ruin our fair city and noble State. In the body of the hall was no negro, although in the gallery upstairs we noticed a few friends of Beecher and Lewis. At the hour appointed the convention was called to order by Mr. A. H. Douglass, who nominated Mr. M. D. L. Stewart as temporary chairman. The nomination was unanimously indorsed, and Mr. Stewart was conducted to the chair by Colonel John Donovan. In assuming the position Mr. Stewart indulged in a few remarks, thanking the convention for the honor they had conferred upon him, and assuring the body that the position was one of which he would always feel proud—to tell his children that he had presided over a convention of white men, met for the purpose of saving their city and county from the domination of the African and the white thieves who had learned them to hate their best friends. We had met there to do a great work. He then said: Let us go along with it harmoniously; let us have no unnecessary talking; let us lift our arms in defense of the white man's rights, and show to the world that we are worthy of our noble heritage. Thanking the Convention again for the honor conferred upon him, he would endeavor to perform the duties it had imposed upon him.

Mr. Donovan then moved that Mr. John M. Campbell act as temporary Secretary. Carried.

On motion a Committee of Credentials, consisting of the following gentlemen, was appointed: John Donovan, A. H. Douglass, James Banks, John Harding, Peter Connelly, W. L. Lundy, and Captain Waldraven.

Esquire J. B. Mercer wanted a delegation of two from each district in the county. Some of them had credentials and some of them had not, but we should take those who had the most creditable vouchers.

General Marcus J. Wright—This Convention is not organized, and it should be postponed until after the report of the Committee on Credentials.

After a short interval the Committee returned, and reported through their Chairman the following list of delegates as entitled to seats in the Convention:

A voice—Read the Second Ward. We are entitled to four delegates. We have got but two.

Colonel A. H. Douglas—Let us settle that matter now. The First Ward is entitled to ten delegates, and it has but seven.

'Squire Walker wished to know why some Wards had ten and others only three.

M. L. D. Stewart—The representation was made on the basis of the last municipal election. The Wards were allowed one delegate for each one hundred votes cast, and an additional one for a fraction over fifty votes.

A. H. Douglas—The Second Ward is entitled to four votes. Let us settle this matter before we go any further.

Colonel John Donovan: I am now satisfied, from information just received, that it was a clerical error, and the committee will correct it, if permission is granted.

Permission was given, and the report of the committee was so corrected as to give the Fourth ward four delegates.

Mr. A. H. Douglas wished to submit a resolution from the people of the First ward, which he had been instructed to present to the Convention, in regard to the number of representatives to which they were entitled.

Colonel Monsarrat: This is not a convention, and no such matters should be brought before this body until a permanent organization has been effected.

Colonel John Donovan: What right has this body to pass upon reports of a committee, or on credentials, until a permanent organization has taken place. We are now in chaos—we cannot tell who are delegates, and who are not.

Colonel Monsarrat moved to adjourn until seven o'clock in the evening.

Marcus J. Wright moved that Greene P. Foute take the chair as permanent President of the Convention.

Colonel Monsarrat insisted that his motion had the precedence, as it was a motion to adjourn.

Marcus J. Wright again renewed his motion.

Colonel John Donovan knew no better man than Greene P. Foute for the position, but he had heard upon the street that it was the determination to make him Chairman of the Convention. He did not wish [illegible] to nominate a President for this Convention, and for this reason he would press the name of G. T. Hubbard to test the matter.

Mr. Hubbard—If it is the wish of the Convention that I should serve as its presiding officer I will do so; but I assure the gentlemen composing it that no better man than Greene P. Foute can be found for the place, and hope he will be selected. I do not ask my friends to support me. Mr. Foute has more rights—he is an older man, and an older citizen, and as such should be preferred.

The motion was so amended that a committee of seven should be appointed as a committee on permanent organization, which amendment was put to a vote and passed by thirty-six yeas to twenty-three noes. The chair then appointed L. J. Dupree, J. E. Reynolds, J. S. Dickinson, W. H. Walker, J. P. Tobin, William Chase and M. J. Wright.

The committee retired, and in a few minutes returned with the report that Judge P. T. Scruggs should be the permanent chairman; Harry Beck, of the Appeal, David Philp, of the Bulletin, and J. M. Campbell, of the AVALANCHE, should act as secretaries.

Judge Scruggs, on taking his seat, indulged in a few well-timed and felicitous remarks. The Convention was [illegible] to talk but to work, and whatever of ability he possessed, he should bring to the work, and whatever of energy the whitening years of time had left him, should be devoted to the holy work of redeeming the white race from its present thraldom. He looked with earnest and intent [illegible] to the time when he should see the white race again free, and hoped that old Father Time would so spare him, that he would die in a white man's country. We have met to nominate county officers on a white man's platform, but that object dwindles into insignificance when compared with the great principles involved in the contest to the white men of Tennessee. I hope this is the inauguration of the movement which is to place all the decent white men of our State, from Carter to Shelby, in one accord in defense of their rights. He had no more to say, but announced that nominations were in order.

Mr. Douglas—Before we commence on the nominations I am instructed by the people of the First Ward to present a resolution in regard to the number of delegates which they are allowed. It is the banner ward; the drum and the pibroch is never heard there, but it moves it on to victory. They are entitled to ten delegates, and they have been allowed but seven.

Mr. W. C. McClure—Had great pleasure in seconding that resolution. They were entitled to the ten delegates, as he could show from the figures.

After some little discussion it was shown by actual figures that the vote of the First Ward at the last election was 875, and consequently that this was entitled to nine delegates, which was accordingly allowed.

Colonel Hubbard—If resolutions are now in order, I have one which I wish to submit. It is brought forward for the sake of harmony, and to insure the success of our ticket.

"We, the undersigned, candidates for office, do hereby recognize and declare this to be a duly and regularly constituted Convention of Delegates representing the Conservative Democratic party of Shelby county, and do therefore submit our names and claims to the same for nomination, respectively; and we do pledge ourselves and our honors to abide by and support the nominations here made; and we furthermore promise and bind ourselves, in case we are not nominated by this Convention, that we will withdraw from the canvass as such candidates, and therefore respectfully ask and request that no name be recognized and considered by this Convention which does not appear hereto subscribed."

Colonel John Donovan, although believing in the good and the necessity of such a resolution, was opposed to it at the present time. All the candidates [illegible] not present and could not [illegible], let them be ever so willing. Gentlemen present had candidates to bring forward, and it would be sufficient should they pledge themselves to support them. The resolution was impracticable.

Mr. Halstead opposed it, too, on like grounds; he had candidate's names to propose whom he did not know would be present, and he did not want them excluded because they were not present.

Colonel G. H. Monsarrat—This is a Convention, and we must indulge in no child's play here, and outside parties must not undertake to control it. We must select the best men if we want to be successful. [Noise from bystanders.] This outside interference is uncalled for. I favor a resolution of this kind, but it cannot be made practical. [More noise.] If we allow this thing to go along this convention will become disrupted.

Mr. Hubbard—Will Colonel Monsarrat allow me to explain? What my resolution implies is that all who place names of candidates before the convention that they become personally and honorably responsible for them that they will abide by the decision of the convention. If a candidate is not present let his friends pledge for him. No man's name should be placed before the convention until the pledge be made.

Colonel Monsarrat—Then we both agree.

Judge Scruggs—Then the resolution will be so modified that the friends of a candidate may vouch for him.

Mr. John H. Hartley—I move that two delegates be appointed to act as tellers.

This was carried, and Messrs. Hartley and Halstead appointed to act in said capacity.

Another difficulty then sprung up in regard to the vacancies existing in some of the wards, which, after some discussion, the Convention authorised the different delegations to fill up wherever they existed.

The crowd, about this time, commenced to press on the delegates, and they were invited to give back, which they did in good order; but it was, on motion, resolved that the Hon. George Dunlap be requested to occupy a seat on the stand.

Nominations now being in order, Marcus J. Wright nominated for Sheriff, Mr. P. M. Winters.

It was then moved that the different offices be taken up in the following order, which was carried, but not, however, strictly adhered to:

For Sheriff of Shelby county.
For Register of Shelby county.
For Trustee of Shelby county.
For Commissioner of Shelby county.
For Clerk of Common Law Court.
For Clerk of Criminal Court.
For Collector of State and County Taxes on Privileges.
For Recorder of County Commissioners.
For Marshal of Municipal Court.
For Constables for Fifth and Fourteenth Civil Districts.
For Justices of the Peace for Fourteenth Civil District.

Colonel John Donovan—Some of the latter offices do not exist; the Legislature is but now passing upon them.

Thomas O. Smith—I have learned by dispatches from Nashville to-day that these offices do exist. That they had separated the two clerkships, and the Common Law and Criminal Court Clerks had become offices.

Marcus J. Wright moved the previous question.

Mr. J. S. Kennard moved that P. M. Winters should be declared, viva voce, the unanimous choice of the convention.

Mr. Foute moved, in order to facilitate matters, that each delegation should elect a chairman, and that said Chairman should cast the vote of the delegation.

Mr. Capers here raised an objection. He wished to cast his own vote, and did not want any one to control it.

Mr. Foute—This plan will not prevent Mr. Capers from casting his own vote; it will only facilitate matters by him delegating to the chairman of his delegation that power; he votes in delegation instead of walking up to the ballot box and depositing it singly.

SHERIFF.

Colonel John Donovan rose to a point of order. Marcus J. Wright had moved the previous question, and so had another gentleman on the viva voce nomination of Mr. Winters.

The vote was then put, and P. M. Winters was unanimously nominated for Sheriff—when the negative vote was put there not being a dissenting whisper.

COUNTY REGISTER.

The next office under consideration was that of County Register, when W. L. Steward, Charles Johnson, C. J. Martin and J. W. King were placed in nomination, with the following result:

First ballot—Stewart, 39; Johnson, 12; Martin, 5; King, 17, and Wright 1. Total number of votes cast, 74; necessary to a choice, 38. No election.

Second ballot—Stewart, 58; King, 15; Johnson, 16.

W. L. Stewart was then declared by the Chairman as the regularly nominated candidate for Register, and the nomination was, on motion, made unanimous.

TRUSTEE.

The next office in the regular order was that of County Trustee, when George C Holmes, A Woodard, Thomas Leonard, Wm P Day, T L Giles, James H Goodlett, and Thomas P Griffin were placed in nomination with the following result:

First ballot—Holmes, 31 Woodard, 35; Leonard, 12; Day, 7; Goodlett, 11; scattering 2. Total number of votes cast, 77; necessary to a choice, 39. No election.

Mr. Woodard, having received more than the above number, was officially declared by the President the choice of the Convention for County Trustee.

SHERIFF.

At this point of the proceedings a motion was made, at the request of Mr P M Winters and his friends, for a reconsideration of the vote which had made him the nominee of the Convention for Sheriff. It was stated that it was made at the request of Sheriff Winters, and he desired that he should be placed before the people regularly, as the rest of the candidates. The motion was then put, and the reconsideration carried. Mr P M Winters and Amos H Curtis were placed in nomination, and thus the ballot resulted:

First Ballot—Winters, 71; Curtis, 5.

Thus ended the contest for Sheriff.

Next in order was a nomination for County Tax Collector, when Phillip Garvin, Samuel P Walker, F W Caldwell, Eli B Douglas, J D Priddy, Geo R Powell and Benjamin Brooks were put before the Convention. The voting resulted as follows:

First Ballot—Walker, 10; Garvin, 27; Brooks, 2; Powell, 17; Caldwell, 7; Douglas, 7; Priddy, 6. Total number of votes, 76; necessary to a choice, 38. No election.

Second Ballot—Garvin, 29; Powell, 39; Walker, 9. The chairman then announced that Mr. Powell was the nominee, and on motion it was declared unanimous.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

The chairman now announced that the next office to be voted for was that of County Commissioner, and he thereupon invited nominations, therefor, which were made as follows: A. D. Hunter, Martin Kelly, F. C. Stevenson, Hume F. Hill, T. L. Giles, W. C. Ward and J. H. McClure. The following is the vote:

First Ballot—Hunter, 17; Kelly, 31; Stevenson, 4; Hill, 3; Giles, 7; Ward, 7; McClure, 4. Total number of votes cast, 73; necessary to a choice, 37. No election.

Mr. Kelly was then declared unanimously the nominee of the convention.

Having gone through all the old offices the convention resolved to take up the new ones, which had been created by the Legislature, and the first one taken up was that of and therefor A. J. Wheeler, F. L. Warner, and J. L. Saffrans were placed in nomination, and Fred. Warner was duly nominated on the first ballot by the following vote:

Wheeler, 4; Warner, 33; Saffrans, 10. Total number of votes, 47; necessary to a choice, 24.

Mr. Fred. Warner was then unanimously announced as the candidate.

CLERK OF CRIMINAL COURT.

The next following was that of Clerk of the Criminal Court, and James M. Schooles, George F. Hubbard and Michael Neelis were nominated. This only occupied one ballot and resulted thus:

Schooles, 34; Hubbard, 11; Neelis.

Mr. Schooles was then unanimously announced to be the choice of the convention, amid much applause.

MARSHAL OF MUNICIPAL COURT.

This contest excited some feeling, and the race was close. Placed in nomination were James H. Swann, D. R. Grace and Kelsey Bond.

First Ballot—Swan, 27; Grace, 28; Bond, 1. Total number of votes, 56; necessary to a choice, 29. No election.

Second Ballot—Grace, 37; Swan, 33.

Mr. Grace was then unanimously declared the nominee.

CLERK OF THE MUNICIPAL COURT.

This also excited much of a contest, and feeling ran high on both sides. There were placed in nomination, Colonel G. H. Monsarrat, D. M. Trader, W. C. McClure, N. M. Trezevant, and Dr. H. F. Bateman. The following is the result:

First Ballot—Monsarrat, 4; Trader, 2; McClure, 20; Trezevant, 13; Bateman 8. Total number of votes cast, 47; necessary to a choice, 24. No election.

Second Ballot—McClure 19; Trezevant, 18; Bateman, 9. Total number of votes cast 49. Necessary to a choice, 24. No election.

Third Ballot—Trezevant 24; McClure 23. Whole number of votes cast, 47. Necessary to a choice, 24.

The rest of the officers being merely district ones, the Convention determined to leave the nominations to the District Conventions.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Before the adjournment of the Convention the Chairman appointed as a County Executive Committee, M. D. L. Stewart, John Donovan and W. H. Walker of Germantown, after which the Convention adjourned, with three hearty cheers for the nominees.

We cannot close this account of the proceedings without paying a fitting tribute to the talent and parliamentary ability displayed by Judge Scruggs. He was certainly the right man in the right place, and the Convention soon became aware of the fact. Taking it all in all, this Convention was a credit to the white men of Memphis; and if auguries amount to anything, this harmonious meeting of the white masses presages well for the success of the white man and the white man's ticket.

The managers of the association now engaged in preparing a "Home" for destitute widows and orphans, at 100 Market street, desire to express their grateful acknowledgments to the firms of Bigly & Mellersh, Briggs & Peterson, W. H. Packer & Co., and Brown & Jones, for their most liberal and important donation of coal to the establishment. Bounty so promptly bestowed and so generous in its proportions, is not often dispensed, and the poor who are the recipients thereof will long have reason to remember their benefactors with heartfelt gratitude.

MRS. D. K. McRAE,
MRS. W. S. PICKETT,
MRS. A. K. TAYLOR,

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—The Democrats of the Ninth ward and Fifteen Civil District are requested to meet at Ford's new house, in Chelsea, for the purpose of adopting a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Fifteenth Civil District Democratic Club. Colonel John Martin and other prominent speakers will address the meeting.

T. McCLEARY, Secretary.

A CARD.—We the undersigned, friends of Messrs. John Hallum and John Cowden, having interfered to prevent any further hostilities between them, and having obtained their consent to abide our decision in the premises, do decide that in our judgment the whole difficulty originated in a misapprehension of facts, and that both have in their hostile meeting maintained their character as men of honor, there is now no further cause of quarrel, and that the affair shall be considered as settled.

JAS. R. CHALMERS,
JOHN WILKERSON,
JOHN T. SHIRLEY,
J. C. COLE.

SEVENTH WARD DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—The members of the Seventh Ward Democratic Club are requested to attend a meeting this evening at seven o'clock, at Ferguson Hall, corner of Beale and Hernando streets. All white citizens are invited to be present.

By order of the Club.

P. T. SCRUGGS, President.

E. LEHMAN, Secretary.

CRIMINAL COURT.—William Hunter, Judge.—This Court adjourned at an early hour on yesterday. No other jurors were selected in the Marre case. A panel of two hundred was ordered to be summoned for to-day, out of which to select the remaining six jurors. Court meets at the usual hour this morning.

WORSHAM HOUSE.—The Friar's Point Coahomian, in speaking of the business of Memphis, pays the following tribute to the Worsham: This fine hotel, under the management of its clever proprietors, Mr. C. B. Galloway and Mr. Royal, has become one of the most popular hotels in the Southwest. The people along the river are beginning to appreciate the efforts of the gentlemanly proprietors in thus endeavoring to render them comfortable while ensconced at the Worsham. Those who have never had an opportunity of sojourning at this fine hotel should not, by any means, neglect to do so at their earliest convenience.

SOMETHING NEW.—That there is something new and inductive to be met with every day, is the truth. Such was the fact when we entered the saloon of Joe Boro (to be known hereafter as Boro's saloon, on Jefferson street, No. 43, under the old Elderado billiard saloon,) last evening. We found everything that money could make pleasing to the eye on every hand. We certainly can recommend the "Boro" as a place of resort to find the best liquors the market affords. We are satisfied and convinced that "Joe" knows what is good and beneficial for every one to take. "Boro's" will be the place hereafter. Our friend "Boro" will give a free lunch to-morrow that will suit the taste of the most fastidious epicure, and he respectfully invites the public to attend, free of all charge. We say to all lovers of good eating and drinking, to go to "Boro's," No. 43 Jefferson street, to-morrow.

RIVER NEWS.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, February 15.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Weather clear and pleasant. The river here is receding steadily, with ten feet and half in the channel to Cairo. The Ohio is rising at Cincinnati and Louisville, with six feet nine inches in the canal, and nine feet on the bars. In the lower Ohio the river is full of running ice, which forms a great impediment to navigation. At St. Louis the river is rising, with prospects of the ice breaking up. White river is falling slowly, with scant six feet to Augusta. The Arkansas remains at low tide, with thirty inches in the channel.

ARRIVALS.

Steamer Liberty No. 2, White river.
" Celeste, Little Rock.
" Victor No. 2, Haile's Point.

DEPARTURES.

Steamer St. Patrick, Evansville.
" Gleaner, Little Rock.
" Natoma, St. Francis river.

IN PORT.

Liberty No. 2, Celeste and Des Arc.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The levee presented a dull appearance yesterday, with a small list of boats in port receiving and discharging.

The St. Patrick cleared for Evansville at five p.m., with 1,450 bales of cotton and a good passenger trip.

The Gleaner backed out for the Arkansas river, with the best trip of the season. She had all the freight she could carry and a very full passenger list.

The peerless passenger steamer Liberty No 2 arrived yesterday from White river, with 330 bales of cotton, 225 barrels of beef, and some miscellaneous freight. She also had a good passenger list, as usual.

The Liberty No. 2 is the regular Saturday packet, leaves to-day at five p.m. for White river and all points through to Jacksonport, connecting at Duvall's Bluff with the Little Rock railroad for all points on the Arkansas. The Liberty has unsurpassed passenger accommodations, Captain Cable commands, with the ever popular and courteous clerk, Milt. Harry, in charge of the office.

The Legal Tender, overdue from the Ohio, had not arrived up to a late hour at night.

The Silver Moon is due to-day from Cincinnati.

We regret to learn that our worthy cotemporary on Second street is confined to his bed with a bilious attack.

The Vicksburg Times says the Dexter is a failure. We are not posted as regards the merits of the Dexter, and deem her unworthy of notice. Her skipper is an ex-Commodore, who in his own estimation is sufficient to make her Dexterous for a short time.

Captain Sam Shock, the traveler's favorite, returned from Louisville yesterday, where he has been to look after the interests of the various agencies he represents. For information as to where to go and how to go to any place just go to Captain Sam and you may rely on what he tells you. He can always be found at the Overton, ready and willing to give attention to all the wants of travelers.

The steamer Tacony, on her return trip from Florence, Alabama, to Cairo, was snagged and sunk at the head of Colbert Shoals, in the Tennessee river, last Monday morning. The water around her is not deep, and unless there should be a sudden rise of the river, the boat and cargo will be saved.

The Belle Lee is due to-morrow evening, bound for Louisville.

The Richmond will pass down on Monday for New Orleans.

The wreck of the Sherman was sold at Evansville on Tuesday, by the underwriters, to Captain John Travis, for $1,250.

The Ezra Porter, in command of Captain B. H. Lee, has entered the Red river trade, having withdrawn from White river.

A public meeting was held at Chattanooga on the 7th instant, urging upon Congress the necessity of making immediate and sufficient appropriations to remove the obstructions to the navigation of the Tennessee river, at present existing at or near Decatur and Chattanooga.

The Olive Branch was to have left New Orleans on Tuesday, for Cairo, and the Southerner and St. Charles for Louisville yesterday.

The Chester Clarion says Captain Haney, of the steamer Lady Grace, left here on Sunday last for St. Louis, for the purpose of buying an interest in the steamer Fanny Scott. Should he succeed, he will run the boat in the Chester and St. Louis trade during the coming season.

The Mollie Able has gone from Cairo to Mount Vernon to load with corn for New Orleans.

The Commonwealth is due from the Ohio, en route for New Orleans. She received 13,000 sacks corn at Mount Vernon and Shawneetown.

The Legal Tender had a hard time in fighting the ice and sand-bars in the lower Ohio, but succeeded in getting out all right. The ice cut small portions of the caulking in her hull, causing her to ship water, which damaged some of the freight in her hole.

There are forty-six boats laying up at Cairo, awaiting business and the resumption of navigation.

The Louisville Courier of Thursday says:

The river was rising slowly yesterday, with six feet and seven inches water in the canal, by the mark at dusk. During the previous twenty-four hours it rose five inches at the head of the falls and fifteen inches at Portland. The weather was clear and freezing hard day before yesterday, but moderating during the day, with the thermometer at 45° at noon and 40° in the evening. On the falls last evening there were four feet seven inches water in the pass, down the Indian chute, and rising, and the river still full of large masses of floating ice. The ice was formidable yesterday, at times covering the entire surface of the river from shore to shore, and the movements of the boats were very much delayed.

We are informed by the oldest importing house in the city that transportation bonds made here are refused at the custom house in New Orleans, and returned here as valueless. This then deprives Louisville of her former position as a port of entry, and makes her a mere dependent of New Orleans in all matters relating to the importation of merchandise. It also enables the New Orleans custom house officers to add largely to their fees and hence [illegible] additional expense to the importers here. Why the Government has imposed this position upon our city we do not know, neither do we know that it has been by act of the Government.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, February 15, 1868.

Business in financial circles yesterday was quiet with little animation exhibited in the market. Money continued to rule stringent with currency scarce. There is little doing in the discount market. The banks are discounting very little paper.

EXCHANGE—Is scarce, with little making, buying at ¼c. off and selling at par, to ¼c. premium.

GOLD—Opened in New York at 140 and closed at 140¼. The market here was dull with few transactions, buying at 138@138½.

CITY SCRIP—Continues dull with nothing doing in the market; there is little offering, with a light demand. Dealers are selling over the counter at 42@45c.

POLICE SCRIP—Quiet, buying at 80@82c. and selling at 85c.

COUNTY WARRANTS—Dull and nominal with no demand; dealers are holding at 63@65c.

National Financial Convention.

A Wall street banking firm has suggested a National Financial Convention, consisting of delegates from the Chamber of Commerce, Boards of Trade, Clearing-House Associations, and Stock Exchanges of the principal cities, the business of the assemblage to the discussion of the questions of currency and consolidation of the public debt. This proposition is excellent. If carried into effect, it would bring together a body of men who have given the best years of their lives to the theoretical and practical study of finance. There would be a directness, force, and relevancy in their discussions and deliberations not attainable in any other convocation. With reputations at stake, and representing the diversified monetary interests of the whole country, the scheme they would present for popular approval, might be reasonably expected to embody the matured wisdom of experience and the needs of our financial situation.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, February 15, 1868.

There was a fair trade doing yesterday in the general market, with light receipts of provisions and breadstuffs. Provisions are firm, with prices unchanged. The White river packet brought in a fair list of orders, which will be filled to-day. The dry goods market is firm and active, with prices tending upwards. Prints 8@14c. Standard sheeting 4-4, 16½c; ¾, 12½c. per yard. Plaids and heavy cotton goods are in active demand, with prices steadily advancing.

The South and our Exports.

The domestic exports of 1867, in specie value, foot up $234,000,000. Those of 1866 were, $273,000,000, a falling off of $40,000,000. This decline is attributable to the decay of Southern agriculture—the decline of Southern products. Next year we shall have less domestic productions to send abroad, and the balance of foreign trade will be heavier against us, and the drain of gold still greater. Here we are, trying to get back to a specie basis, in order to help place the commerce of the country on a sound footing; and thousands of the fanatical fools, recognizing the fact that without that specie basis the paper dollar will sink to fifty or twenty-five cents, while at the same time these political miscreants are crushing out the growth of the great staple which Europe would gladly take, leaving us no means of paying our trade balances save the gold. We cannot ship gold at the rate of $50,000,000 per year, and restore the currency at the same time to the condition the business of the country demands. The prosperity of the country is not solely based on low taxes and economical administrations, if these desiderata were secured. We must have all the specie possible, in order to restore the proper credit of the paper dollar, whether issued by the Government or the private banker. To prevent the drain of the precious metals we must ship Southern products. Northern products are not large enough to meet the case. Corn and wheat are never in sufficient surplus; it is cotton and tobacco that we must have, and it is only under Democratic rule that Southern prosperity can be fostered. The miserable, reckless mongrels who are trampling upon law, morals and the constitution, are doomed to political destruction by an outraged people, who will not allow this state of things to go on after the fourth of March next.—New York Day Book.

The Amount of Wheat in Minnesota.

Some of the prominent wheat dealers in Minnesota have been estimating the amount of wheat now in Minnesota, which is yet to be marketed. This estimate is exclusive of the amount that will be required for seed in the spring. The figures given to the St. Paul Press are as follows:

In store on the Minnesota river, 133,000 bushels.
In store on Mississippi river, between La Crosse and St. Paul, 505,000 bushels.
Estimated total amount in the State yet to be shipped, 3,175,000 bushels.

On the receipt of Eastern advices all movement in the market was checked and prices during the remainder of the day were weak, with a slight decline. On Monday a train from Omaha for Chicago, on the Northwestern railroad, was thrown from the track near Marshall, Iowa, and one sleeping and two passenger cars pitched down a fifteen foot embankment. The sleeping and one of the passengers cars were discovered to be on fire, which added to the general confusion. The only persons who were seriously hurt were two ladies, one of them a cousin of conductor Daniel Richardson, and it is thought she will not recover. Hardly any of the passengers, however, escaped without bruises. The passenger car which caught fire was entirely consumed.

A new move in the revolutionary plot has been determined on, which embraces the admission of Alabama and the recognition of her representatives in Congress, regardless of the vote being taken on the adoption of the Constitution. The Radicals now argue that the very large vote cast for the Constitution will justify a repeal of so much of the reconstruction laws as requires a majority of the registered votes to be cast. This will be done, and the Constitution as formed will be recognized, and Alabama will be represented in Congress in a few weeks. This has all been arranged with certain Southern loyalists, who are now in the city of Washington, including a Governor.

Late intelligence of a highly important character have been received at Washington from the Hon. Anson Burlingame, disclosing, in some measure, the object of his novel appointment by the Chinese government. China has had a civil war on hand for a long time, and it appears the Government is now hard pressed by the rebels, who are approaching Pekin. In their distress the Chinese authorities have determined to seek outside assistance, for which they propose to grant a full equivalent in the way of commercial advantages. Mr. Burlingame was selected for the purpose of presenting the facts to the several controlling powers of Europe, as well as to the Government of the United States, and naturally he came here first. Those who are in possession of the facts, regard events as peculiarily propitious, and doubt not, by a wise policy, this Government can obtain control of the rich commerce of the East.
